Records Manager Jen Dabney began her career at the Covina Police Department in February of 2012. Jen came to Covina from the City of Sierra Madre where she worked as a Dispatcher, Dispatch Training Officer, and as the Payroll and Records Clerk. Jen also handled the additional responsibilities of training other employees about Records, and she coordinated all training of all types, for all of Sierra Madre's police department employees. Jen was the recipient of the Sierra Madre Police Chief's Special Awared in 2011. She currently leads Covina Police Department's team of nine full and part-time Records Personnel.
