The Covina Downtown Association (CDA) is a group of business owners, working together to promote the historic downtown shopping district. CDA presents a variety of community and cultural events each year.