

Funded by a Community Development Block Grant

Case Management Services are provided by Intervale Senior Services. This program is oriented to assist the elderly who have problems which are preventing them from living independently or from receiving needed services.