

On Tuesday, July 15th, the State Water Resources Control Board approved mandatory statewide regulations to increase water conservation. The City of Covina Water Utility is reviewing these new regulations to make recommendations to the City Council to meet the new state mandates by August 2014.

There are ongoing local water conservation requirements in place due to the declared Level 1 water supply shortage. Please view the document below to familiarize yourself with the water conservation requirements.

Water Conservation Ordinance: View

For information on the State's action, please visit the California state website by clicking, HER E.